

Schrendria Burnett Robinson, President of Clear Vision Seminars & Consulting, is Public Health Educator and a Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES). She's also a certified grants specialist and consultant who provides training in the areas of grant writing, non-profit management, board development and team building. Robinson's greatest passion is public speaking.

She is a native of Norwood, Georgia a small, rural poverty-stricken community. Robinson graduated at the top of her high school class, received a bachelor's degree from Clark Atlanta University and a master's degree from the University of South Carolina.

Her career began in the field of alcohol and drug abuse prevention. She has also worked in other prevention programs including: diabetes, obesity, teen pregnancy, sexually transmitted disease/infection and school drop out. Robinson has served as project director of programs funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Prior to making Clear Vision Seminars and Consulting a full-time career, she was the Director of Consumer Credit Counseling Service - Columbia (a division of Family Service Center of SC), overseeing offices in Columbia, Sumter, Florence, Orangeburg, Camden and Rock Hill, SC.

Robinson is an ordained associate minister at Bethel AME Church in Columbia, SC where she serves in various capacities. In her spare time she enjoys cooking, baking, reading, traveling and shopping.